

The London College adopts the Working definition of Antisemitism

At the London College, we welcome inclusivity and diversity.

In support of our continued efforts to embrace diversity and to perform our civic responsibility in support of the Equality Act, we adopt the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of anti-Semitism:

To guide IHRA in its work, the following examples may serve as illustrations:

Manifestations might include the targeting of the state of Israel, conceived as a Jewish

- f* Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
- f* Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- f* Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

Antisemitic acts are criminal when they are so defined by law (for example, denial of the Holocaust or distribution of antisemitic materials in some countries).

Criminal acts are antisemitic when the targets of attacks, whether they are people or property ±such as buildings, schools, places of worship and cemeteries ±are selected because they are, or are perceived to be, Jewish or linked to Jews.

Antisemitic discrimination is the denial to Jews of opportunities or services available to others and is illegal in many countries.
